The Minnesota Pork Board's ambassador program strives to create a learning environment for the development of young leaders in the pork industry. Participation in the ambassador program will increase understanding of the pork industry and its opportunities and challenges. Additionally, the ambassador program will develop the necessary support system for participants' current and future involvement as leaders in the Minnesota pork industry.

Program Objectives

1. To develop future leaders for the Minnesota pork industry and agriculture.
2. To instill a sense of commitment in young people to the pork industry by providing them with service opportunities that allow them to become involved at the local, state, and national levels.
3. To develop leadership and communication skills through hands-on experiences.
4. To establish a network of individuals that will serve as a resource for young people as they look to develop their leadership skills and become increasingly involved in the pork industry.

SECTION ONE: County Ambassadors

Selection of County Ambassadors

County ambassadors should be selected according to each respective county organization's policies and criteria. The Minnesota Pork Board does not prescribe a process for selecting county ambassadors.

NOTE: Young people from counties with inactive county pork associations are eligible for the state ambassador competition. Individuals should submit the necessary information listed below independently and will be considered as a candidate for the state pork ambassador competition.

STATE AMBASSADOR COMPETITION ELIGIBILITY NOTE:

If the ambassador intends to compete for the state ambassadorship, the ambassador must meet the qualifications for the state ambassador program which are outlined on page 10 of this handbook.

There is no limit to the number of individuals that can represent a county.
