

SUMMER INTERNSHIP MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS

OVERVIEW

Purpose-driven work makes a difference, especially when it supports Minnesota's more than 3,000 family pig farmers. In this internship, you'll put your energy and creativity to work alongside the Minnesota Pork team to promote pork and the dedicated farmers who raise it.

The ideal candidate enjoys creative storytelling, is organized and self-motivated, and is eager to gain real-world experience in agricultural marketing and communications.

WHAT YOU'LL GAIN

- » Real-world marketing experience through digital, social, and print content creation
- » Hands-on event coordination supporting local and statewide promotions
- » Skills in brand communication, stakeholder engagement, and insight into advocacy efforts

TIMELINE

» Summer 2027: Full-time, May-September, in-person with occasional remote flexibility
